Board responsibility

The Board and its sub-committees are ultimately responsible for overseeing the integrity and completeness of the integrated report. The Board has applied its collective mind to the preparation and presentation of the integrated report and has concluded that the completeness of the material matters dealt with and the reliability of data and information presented, were taken into consideration and have been materially presented according to the International Integrated Reporting Council's (IIRC) Integrated Report framework. On 26 February 2015, the Board approved the 2014 integrated report.

Forward-looking statements

Opinions expressed in this report are, by nature, subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties. Changing information or circumstances may cause the actual results, plans and objectives of Afrox to differ materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements. Undue reliance should not be placed on such opinions, forecasts or data. No representation is made on the completeness or correctness of opinions, forecasts or data in this report. Neither Afrox nor any of its affiliates, advisors or representatives accepts any responsibility for any loss arising from the use of any opinion expressed, forecast or data in this report. Forward-looking statements apply only as of the date on which they are made and Afrox does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any of its opinions or forward-looking statements, whether to reflect new data or future events or circumstances.

The financial information on which the forward-looking statements are based have not been audited or reported on by Afrox's independent external auditors.

Feedback

We remain committed to enhancing and improving on future integrated reports and to reporting on the value that Afrox creates for its stakeholders.
